

Gentlemen of the Eight-Sided Table,

Take a close butcher's at the bottom of this post as we've implemented some MAJOR RULE CHANGES!

It's on like the Popovich AC!

Dougie's Chateau du Nyuk-Nyuk hosts the 4th installment of the Octagon party.

Unless you've been under a Hoffman carrel all semester, you know we're at the felt playing Al Roker, Texas Hold 'Em for you non-cockney slangin' feather pluckers.

New Day! Tuesday Nov. 4th 8pm.

Join us as The Honolulu Kid attempts to defend his belt (genuine pleather, size 30) while the rest of us try not to go artichoke too early.

Some advice from a one-time spring-break sinner:

- Keep your bladder of lards close and above the table at all times.
- Don't let the other guys read your Chevy Chase.
- Never Gregory Peck on pocket kings.
- Keep those mince pies peeled at all times.
- Never sit with your back to the Roger Moore.

For those members who've surrendered to the institution of undercarriage, with the little knife and fork waiting back at the gates of Rome, consider this "spousal avoidance night." The rest of us subsist on a good peddle and crank.

Bring a six pack of pig's ear to work up a healthy how's your father.

I'll be puffing on my regular Cuban pine tar, so port along a gas mask if you don't summer in Mexico City.

Rule Changes:

1. $25 Buy-In
2. $25 one-time Re-Buy allowed before 11pm and only if you're all out.
3. $5 Late Fee - Show up after 8pm and you pay an extra saw-buck to play. Game is closed at 9pm.
4. Winnings are split three ways: 50% - 30% - 10%, with 10% going to the House Expense Account.
5. Blinds/limits will be raised every half-hour, as follows: (1,2) (2,4) (4,8) (10,15) (15,30) (30,60) (60,120) until midnight, when we go no-limit

Recognize: We will have two full tables. First come is first seated. Respond now with a simple IN or OUT.

Best pots and dishes,

Proud of you guys,
