

Fellowship of the Green-Felt Battlefield,

You're invited to the Big Player Hold'Em Tourney: Tuesday, December 2nd at Dougie's Crib O' Chip Stackin'

To celebrate the forthcoming long-vacation and our last official game of 2003, we're going Big Player style.

$50 buy-in, NO REBUYS! 8pm start, $5 late-entry fee.

So come on down to Dougie's! Let the drinks arrive at your table while you kick back and watch your chip count stack

Of course table service will be in effect.

Respond back ASAP with an IN or OUT

In case you were wondering:

No table jumping. In other words we distribute the # of players as evenly as possible among the tables and whittle down to the final 3 per table (If we have 3 tables) or 2 per table (if we have 4 tables). Remaining players join together at the final table.

Here's the deal with new players: All 1st year Marshall MBA Full-timers are welcome, but they must make contact first, so if you know someone who is interested, females included (players only), have them respond to this email.

(We'll be back after the holiday break: Tuesday, January 6th 2004).

Proud of you guys,
